

Worksheet 4 Generalization: 5th Grade Aligned Component

Use the equation graphic organizers and a calculator to help you solve the problems.

Groups of

→ $\square \times \square =$

In each

→ $\begin{matrix} \square \\ \text{Big} \\ \text{number} \end{matrix} \div \begin{matrix} \square \\ \text{Small} \\ \text{number} \end{matrix} =$

1. Mr. Winkler had 20 students. He divided them into 4 groups. How many students were in each group?

2. Mrs. Snell took 7 groups of 4 on a trip to the science museum. How many students in all went to the museum?

3. Mrs. Burton told 4 groups of 10 to ride on the first bus. How many students rode on the first bus?

4. The principal divided the students from Mrs. Jessup's class into 3 groups. There were 27 students. How many students were in each group?